Mermald Stakes by Afternoon-Emin Rey Takes the Surplus Stakes in Easy Fash ion-Xemen, Intimidad, and Gloaming Win Purses-Gloaming's Good Perform ance - Interesting Goestp of the Turf.

Probably 0,000 persons enjoyed a good day's sport at Sheepshead Bay yesterday afternoon, the Mesars. Fielschmann winning the Spring Stakes with the two-year-old St. Maxim, while the Mermaid Stakes for three-year-old fillies went to Messrs. Brown & Rogers's Afternoon. the daughter of Troubadour and Matinee, beating Lady Violet a short head in a furious drive. The weather was perfect and the track

St. Maxim, on the strength of his second to Dobbins in the June Stakes, was heavily played, although Discount closed the actual favorite for the Spring Stakes. Riverside, a good looking son of Stratford and Water Lily, from the Keene Stable, was very strongly backed also, Father Bill Daly's Hartford being the extreme outsider. St. Maxim, under a stout pull, ran head and head with Discount and Riverside until around the cibow, where Clayton let the Cincinnati-owned colt draw away. The race was only a big gallop for St. Maxim, while in the drive which ensued for second money the green Riverside outlasted Discount. The winner is improving daily and could have carried 125 pounds and won yester-day's race. Hartford had enough at the end of

Lady Violet and Miss Maude were about squal choices for the Mermaid Stakes, the former having worked a good mile at the bay. while the brown mare had received a special preparation at Monmouth Park, Naphtha, a winner at Gravesend and Morris Park, wasn't played to any great extent, and few persons wanted Afternoon, the Brown & Rogers candidate, at 8 to 1, although her repu-tation in the West was of the very highest. Lady Violet and Miss Maude tation in the West was of the very highest. Lady Violet and Miss Mnude ran half lengths apart until turning for home, where the latter was beaten, and Doggett eame up next the rail with the outsider. Hamilton was fearful that Doggett would eut Lady Violet down and called out warningly: "Look out, Sam: don't cut my mare down." Look out, Sam: don't cut my mare down." Look out, Sam: don't cut my mare down." Doggett, thus adjured, took Atternoon back a trifle, and, waiting until the stretch was reached, got an opening and went up on the outside, bringing Hamilton to the whip. The Lady responded to the punishment very gamely, and Doggett in turn was forced to ride Afternoon. The last named swerved a trifle toward the outer rail, but managed to win by a short head. Miss Maude was third, while Naphtha, beaten from the start, was pulled up in the homestretch.

Yemen was a slight favorite over Gold Pollar for the first race, a dash over the uturity course. The Rancocas gelding ran is opponents into the ground in half a mile, and wen in a romp. Gold Dollar, ridden with he and spur by the elder Lamly from start sh, was second, while Garrison secured place with the mighty Steve Estes, son ingfield and Bloodstain.

Messrs. Keene sprang a good colt on the ic in the second race, their representative, midad, a 10 to 1 shot at the opening of the ing, making all the running and winning furious drive from Galliee, Gaillee was rite, but he acted very badly at the post, way none too well and was pocketed in 'y stages of the contest. When he did ough, three furlongs from home, he arapidly and would have heaten Inidad in a few more strides. The $8,500 rling Rama. owned by Mr. Lorillard red, but dropped out of the race before it is half over. Rama was a great yearling, was cut down in a trial at Jobstown, and vas thought at one time that he would never eagain. He hasn't grown any, and his ined leg is thick. He is a full brother to ron and G. W. Johnson.

min Bey was favorite for the Surplus Stakes, fifth race on the card, and, affer w set Brand, the other starter, appears to be or goods.

Watterson and Gloaming were very heavily acked for the last race of the day, a dash at a wife. Mr. Howe unfortunately gave the for; er the worst of the send-off and the gelding had too much ground to make up and sti d any chance of victory. Gloaming indused Marie K. with the lead for half the joiney and then romped to the front with herbeautiful long, sweening stride to remain there to the end. As Marie K. dropped back beaten. Simms cut across her with Madrid and took the rail, interfering with the Fleischmann representative. Lizzle, however, held Madrid safe in the battle for second money, watterson was close up a quarter of a mile from home, but the effort in closing the gap at the start told on him and he faded away in the home stretch. Mr. Follansbee has a great mare in Gloaming. A complaint of foul riding was made against Simms. Summaries follow:

J. E. Cushing, owner of Boundless, it is said is fearful that Garrison or some other boy will foul his colt in the Realization Stakes to-day. The Coney Island Jockey Club will see that Boundless and every colt that starts for the big prize has a clear field. They want the race decided on its merits.

That game little colt, Sir Walter, did not do well after winning the Tidal Stakes at Sheepshead, and Dr. Knapp took him up to Jerome Park for a rest. He brought him back to the Bay again yesterday evening, and Tom Healey will send him to the post, Trainer Walter Hollins being ill at his home in Fordham.

FAIR SPORT AT THE BAY.

Ing for $10,000, Joe Taylor, part owner of Sport, said that he had made no such proposition, but that he wouldn't mind running his coll against the winner of the Realization for a sweepstakes of $2,500, the Jockey Club to add a like amount and the race to be a mile and a half, mile and five-eighths, or two miles. Should Boundless he beaten to-day and St. Leonards win, the Western coit could come into the race.

NOW FOR THE REALIZATION.

Boundless and St. Leonards to Meet To-day for the $30,000 Prize.

The Coney Island Jockey Club offers a splendid programme for the closing day of its spring meeting at Sheepshead Bay to-day, and it is thought that with the weather fine fully 20,000 persons will turn out to see the Ameriean Derby winner Boundless meet St. Leonards, Ramapo, Sir Walter, the Sunbeam colt, and Accident in the $30,000 Realization Stakes.

The admission to the beautiful grounds will be fifty cents. The Realization Stakes, the fifth race on the programme, will not be started until after 4 o'clock, and will give business people ample time to reach the course. Although Boundless will be called upon to concede weight to all of his opponents, there are not a few good judges who fancy him to win over St. Leonards. The Western colt worked so smoothly on Thursday evening that he gained many friends. Sir Walter has admirers, and the Sunbeam colt, with his great pull in the weights, will not go to the post friendless. The field is small, and there will be no excuse for crowding or foul riding, of which Owner Cushing seems to stand in great dread.

which Owner Cushing seems to stand in great dread.

The Double Event for 2-year-olds will bring together such likely youngsters as Hyderabad. Declare, St. Julien, and Hornpipe. The Messrs, Keene appear to have a mortgage on the stake with Hyderabad, the big colt they purchased from Albert Cooper for $30,000 last week. The other races have filled remarkably well.

The programme in full follows:

A Bitter Poniroom War at Covington, CIRCINNATI, June 30.-The poolroom was in Covington took a serious turn yesterday afternoon. Chief Good took a serious turn yes syrday afternoon. Chief Goodson of the Covington police stationed officers at two of the rooms. The treutile all came from the efforts of the pool combine, composed of Sharp. Payne, and the Kenincky Turf Exchange to prevent Tapp & Co., the new men, from getting a foothold on the "good thing."
The new room, unable to get a wire, got the odds and entires from the other rooms by messenger boys.

Yesterday the messenger boys were thrown out of Sharp's room and Tapp & Co, threatened arrest for assault and battery. Trouble is threatened yet, and it is intimated that the circumstances are such in Govingtion that the new men will not come out second best.

GREAT TROTTING AND PACING.

The Best Performances of the Year at PRILADELPRIA, June 30,-With fine classes to dispose of at Point Breeze, the heats were resied off so rapidly that the card was cleared earlier than at any time of the meeting. Albambra came out first for the 2:15 mixed class, a mile in 2:1434, disposing of Hazel Wilkes and giving the pacer a new record. John Goldsmith had hard luck with Kate C., for, after getting a heat, the mare was so sore that she would stay on a pace and was distanced in the fourth heat. SANGER BACK FROM EUROPE.

He Says that the Leading American Cyclere Can Beat the English Cracks, Walter Sanger the Milwankee bicyclist who went to England last month to compete in the important events in Europe, returned home yesterday on the Germanic. Sunger was met by a party of friends, and he stated that his trip was a very successful one.

Sanger rode his first race at Brussels and won the King's Cup. He started in six races in England and won three. He defeated Harris and other noted riders in the one-mile championship of the N. C. U. This was the only championship event in which he competed. While in England he rode a quarter mile, flying start, in the recent time of 27-45 seconds and lowered the one-mile English record of 2 minutes 12-3-5 seconds held by Harris to 2 minutes 10-25 seconds. In speaking of Zimmerman, Sanser thinks that the American champion received unjust treatment at the hands of the N. C. U. No question was raised about his amsteur standing, and he secured a license to race upon the presentation of his credentials from the L. A. W. when asked if he would race for eash prizes Sanger replied that it was his intention to race at the L. A. W. when saked if he would do. He thinks that Harris, the English crack, cannot defeat any of the leading American racers, of Meinijes, the South African racer, kenger says that he is the fastest rider in English. The Network of the English racer who, it was reported, was to accompany Sanser to this country and take out a necession the Cash Prize League, will not come until later in the season. won three. He defeated Harris and other noted riders

Pour Jenvis, June 29.—A case of interest to wheelmen and bioycle riders was tried to-day in the Supreme Court at Goshen, Orange county, before Judge Collen and a jury. The action was brought by a resident of Port Jervis against Charles Parr of Brooklyn for damages for personal inturies received from being rundown by a safety bicycle on a sidewalk in this willaga, at the time the injury was received from being rundown by a safety bicycle on a sidewalk in this willaga, and the parameusir right of podestrians to the use of a sidewalk. Judge Cullen charged the jury that the law of the road did apply, and that a bicyclist had no more right to run his machine on a sidewalk than a person had to ride a horse upon it. The jury rendered a verdett in favor of the plainting for $700.

The programme for Dominick McCaffrey's Fourth of July open-air boxing show at the Polo grounds promises to be an extensive and interesting one. Up to ises to be an extensive and interesting one. Up to date the list of well-known competitors includes such names as Horace Leeds, Al O'Brien, Billy McCarthy, Harry Newmier, Con Rierdon, and C. C. Smith, Nuideon's "Thunderboil." The latter pair were matched yesterday by McCaffrey, and it's very probable that they will put up a great contest.

James Thornton, lamous as the author of "The Man in the Moon" and other popular airs, has been secured as master of ceremonies.

The past few days have been busy ones in local handball circles. On Tuesday the Dunnes, pers et file, visited the Brooklyn club's court and warmed up with a lively game in which James, Jr., beat the ex Alderman allowing him ten accs. He got to eighteen in the first game and mineteen in the second, losing the match to the clever partners, who play a fine combination game. Champion Casey says he struggled hard, but the team was too much for him.

A Chance for Jerry Barnett to Make a Good Stake.

To the Editor of Tas Sux—Sir: Directly after my last fight with Jerry Barnett, which was declared a draw. Auformed Barnett that I was anxious to settle the ma ter of superiority between us by fighting to a finish. Since then I have frequently asked him to meet me, but thus far have failed to get any satisfactory answer. I will now try again.

I will fished Barnett to a finish at the feather weight in at the ring side or two hours before fifting. If this is not satisfactory, I will fight him a limited round or finish sph, at any weight up to and including 122 pounds, for a purse only. All lask is a fair field, no favors, and ist the best man with.
